FEATURES

Tax considerations for donating assets

- Immediate tax deduction on the entire contribution in year¹
- Best to gift highly appreciated assets
- Any excess deduction above the adjusted gross income (AGI) limit may receive up to a 5-year carry forward¹

Investment grows tax free

- Cash, publicly & privately-held stock, restricted stock, tangible personal property, and real estate can be donated
- Donations can be liquidated and invested at the donor's choosing in a wide variety of stocks, bonds, ETFs, and mutual funds
- Investment growth within the account is not taxed and distributions to eligible public charities are tax free

Option to give grants over multiple years

- Grants may be made at the leisure of the donor
- Grants may be given to multiple charities of your choice
- Can be used to promote philanthropic values within one's family (i.e Smith Family Charitable Fund)

¹ Deduction is up to 60% of AGI for cash donations and up to 30% AGI for other assets (long term securities, real estate etc).

² Performance figures given in the chart above are based on the average return of the S&P 500 from 1929-2017, less 2% in fees. The Standard & Poor's (S&P) 500 Index is an unmanaged index that tracks the performance of 500 widely held, large-capitalization U.S. stocks. It is not possible to invest directly in an index. Performance figures represent past performance & do not guarantee future results.
